

General

Dr Natalie Thatcher

Bio

Natalie currently works for Mondelēz International, where she provides risk assessment advice and guidance acute risk from contamination of, and safety for Mondelēz products.

She is a former member of the FSA where she carried out risk assessments in response to toxicological enquiries on chemical contaminants in food and was a member of the Secretariat to the UK Committee in Toxicity. She subsequently worked at EFSA undertaking risk assessments of contaminants in the food chain.

Dr. Thatcher's appointment as a member of the COT expires on 31st March 2025.

Register of interests

An up-to-date record of member interests can be found on the Register of Interests page.