

General

Dr Cheryl Scudamore

Bio

Cheryl Scudamore BVSc, PhD, FHEA, FRCPath, FRCVS is an RCVS Specialist in Veterinary Pathology (laboratory animals) working as independent consultant in experimental and toxicological pathology. In addition she currently holds a visiting Chair in Veterinary Pathology at Surrey University. She has extensive experience working as a pathologist and senior manager in the pharmaceutical industry, academia and diagnostic veterinary pathology working for a range of organisations including GlaxoSmithKline, Covance, Envigo, MRC Harwell Institute, NationWideLaboratories, Royal Veterinary College and R(D)SVS, Edinburgh.

Dr. Scudamore's appointment as a member of the COT expires on 31st May 2025.

Personal Interest

Category of Interest	Organisation / Body and Nature of Interest (period)
Employee	Independent consultant in experimental and toxicological pathology