Advisory Committee for Social Science (ACSS)

Updated: October 2022.

Last meeting: 20th July 2022 (9th plenary, open session).

Key agenda items

- Julie Hill has started her role as Chair of the ACSS.
- Three new members join the committee in October, Dr Charlotte Hardman, Professor Fiona Gillison and Dr Naomi Maynard.
- ACSS secretariat and Julie Hill are attending the DEFRA SSEG (Social Science Expert Group) meeting in Cambridge in November.

Minutes and papers are not yet available on the website.

Working group highlights:

- The Assurance working group are supporting the development of a 'good science' quality assurance toolkit to support the production of high-quality research. The group have also taken part in the first 'Social Science Gateway Session'.
- The Kitchen Life 2 working group continues to support the research project Kitchen Life 2.
- The Climate Change and Consumer Behaviour working group had a recent publication around the impact of climate change on consumer food behaviours. The group has paused until new members are in position.
- The Wider Consumer Interests working group continues to support this new ARI and focus on Household Food Insecurity.

- The Economics working group have agreed their Terms of References and reviewed the economic work plan for the next financial year.

The next open meeting of the ACSS will be 2nd February 2023.

Advisory Committee on the Microbiological Safety of Food (ACMSF)

Updated: 19th August 2022.

The Committee's last meeting was on the 23rd of June 2022, which was a horizon scanning workshop.

The questions the Committee considered were:

How are the following issues likely to affect the burden of foodborne disease in the UK over the next 10-20 years, in terms of existing and new hazards and likelihood of exposure, including AMR?

What are the key evidence gaps?

- Challenges associated with disruption to food supply chains:
Potential examples to consider: disease outbreaks, climate and environmental change, geopolitical issues including EU Exit, shortages of materials or resources.
- Changes in methods of food production and new food technologies:
Potential examples to consider: new food packaging, sustainable food practices, food reformulation trends.
- Changes in consumer behaviour and preferences: Potential examples to consider: food poverty and inequality, changes in food storage/preparation practices, changes in consumer diets influenced by health or sustainability issue.
- Challenges associated with changes in the sizes of vulnerable groups: Potential examples to consider: ageing population.
- Anything else?: What are other important issues or challenges that the Committee may face in the next 10-20 years?

An output paper has been produced, which will be discussed by the Committee at the next plenary meeting.

Next meeting: 20th October 2022.
