

Statement on the risk assessment of cow's milk in children aged 1 to 5 years, in the context of plant-based drinks evaluations

Summary - Statement on the risk assessment of cow's milk in children aged 1 to 5 years, in the context of plant-based drinks evaluations

In this guide

In this guide

1. Background - Statement on the risk assessment of cow's milk in children aged 1 to 5 years, in the context of plant-based drinks evaluations
2. Consumption data
3. Chemicals assessed
4. Risk Characterisation - Statement on the risk assessment of cow's milk in children aged 1 to 5 years, in the context of plant-based drinks evaluations
5. Summary - Statement on the risk assessment of cow's milk in children aged 1 to 5 years, in the context of plant-based drinks evaluations
6. Conclusions - Statement on the risk assessment of cow's milk in children aged 1 to 5 years, in the context of plant-based drinks evaluations
7. Abbreviations and Technical Information
8. References - Statement on the risk assessment of cow's milk in children aged 1 to 5 years, in the context of plant-based drinks evaluations

160. To aid in the risk assessment of the chemicals described in this statement three tables are included (Tables 17, 18 and 19), providing a summary of the conclusions and where appropriate to this paper, the HBGV for each substance and highest age range-estimated exposure via the diet, based on mean consumption data.