Statement on the risk assessment of cow's milk in children aged 1 to 5 years, in the context of plant-based drinks evaluations

Summary - Statement on the risk assessment of cow's milk in children aged 1 to 5 years, in the context of plant-based drinks evaluations

In this guide

In this guide

- 1. Background Statement on the risk assessment of cow's milk in children aged 1 to 5 years, in the context of plant-based drinks evaluations
- 2. Consumption data
- 3. Chemicals assessed
- 4. Risk Characterisation Statement on the risk assessment of cow's milk in children aged 1 to 5 years, in the context of plant-based drinks evaluations
- 5. Summary Statement on the risk assessment of cow's milk in children aged 1 to 5 years, in the context of plant-based drinks evaluations
- 6. Conclusions Statement on the risk assessment of cow's milk in children aged 1 to 5 years, in the context of plant-based drinks evaluations
- 7. Abbreviations and Technical Information
- 160. To aid in the risk assessment of the chemicals described in this statement three tables are included (Tables 17, 18 and 19), providing a summary of the conclusions and where appropriate to this paper, the HBGV for each substance and highest age range-estimated exposure via the diet, based on mean consumption data.